MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT’S MOTION TO DISMISS AMENDED COMPLAINT

Eric Spector filed a SLAPP suit against Robert Lefkowitz because Spector didn’t like mean things said about him on X/Twitter. See Complaint, NYSCEF Doc. No. 2. On March 25, 2026, Mr. Lefkowitz filed a motion to dismiss this action per CPLR 3211(a)(1) & (7) and CPLR 3211(g) and awarding mandatory fees and costs to Defendant under Civil Rights Law § 70-a on the grounds that this is an action involving public petition and participation as defined in Civil Rights Law § 76-a(1)(a). (Mot. Seq. No. 2, NYSCEF Doc. Nos. 11-37).

In response, on April 21, 2026, Plaintiff filed an Amended Complaint. (Exhibit 1, NYSCEF Doc. No. 39). Other than the lengthy Exhibit A and Plaintiff’s conclusory assertion that this was on a matter of purely private concern, the Amended Complaint did not substantively alter the existing causes of action. See Simkin v. Blank, 19 N.Y.3d 46, 52, 945 N.Y.S.2d 222, 225 (2013)(“bare legal conclusions” in a complaint are not entitled to a liberal construction or favorable inference).

Because it did not substantively alter the existing causes of action, the original motion to dismiss (Mot. Seq. No. 2) remains open to dismiss the entire action, even though the amended complaint is now the operative complaint. See Aetna Life Ins. Co. v. Appalachian Asset Mgmt. Corp., 110 A.D.3d 32, 39, 970 N.Y.S.2d 750, 755 (1st Dept. 2013). Specifically, this application of the prior-filed motion includes anti-SLAPP motions. See Zaiger LLC v. Bucher Law PLLC, 238 A.D.3d 687, 687-88, 236 N.Y.S.3d 141, 143 (1st Dept. 2025). Defendant's counsel communicated this by letter to counsel for Plaintiff. See Exhibit 2.

Although Plaintiff's counsel did not respond to the letter, Plaintiff's opposition to Mot. Seq. No. 2 (NYSCEF Doc. No. 41) refers solely to the allegations in the Amended Complaint. Thus, it appears that Plaintiff agrees that the original motion remains operative.

However, to the extent that Defendant must specifically move to dismiss the Amended Complaint, he does so now, incorporating by reference and adopts the factual and legal arguments, references, attachments, and exhibits he submitted in support of Mot. Seq. No. 2 (NYSCEF Doc. Nos. 11-37), as well as his reply memorandum and any supplemental or oral argument his counsel may make in support of that motion. See, e.g., Cornell v. 360 W. 51st St. Realty, LLC, 22 N.Y.3d 762, 768 (2014)(involving dispositive motion where party incorporated prior motion by reference); Part 60 Put-Back Litig., 2020 NY Slip Op 31693(U), 5 (N.Y. Cty. Sup. Ct. 2020)(same); Glob. Exp. Mktg. Co., Ltd. v. Raymond AAB, 2020 NY Slip Op 33319(U), 3-4 (N.Y. Cty. Sup. Ct. 2020)(same).

Thus, as with the original complaint, Court should dismiss Plaintiff's Amended Complaint in the entirety, with prejudice, awarding fees and costs under the Anti-SLAPP law.

Dated: May 11, 2026.

4. In response, on April 21, 2026, Plaintiff filed an Amended Complaint. See Exhibit 1, which is a true and correct copy of Plaintiff's Amended Complaint (NYSCEF Doc. No. 39).

5. Other than the lengthy Exhibit A and Plaintiff's conclusory assertion that this was on a matter of purely private concern, the Amended Complaint did not substantively alter the existing causes of action. *See Simkin v. AMENDED
COMPLAINT

Index No.: 150234/2026

AMENDED VERIFIED COMPLAINT

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action arising from a deliberately false and malicious campaign to identify Plaintiff, Eric Spector, as the person behind a social-media account known as “Murray Hill Guy,” to accuse him of serious sexual misconduct and criminal behavior, to publicize his name and image to others, and to direct such accusations to Plaintiff’s employer and the public in order to destroy Plaintiff’s reputation, livelihood, and sense of personal safety.
2. Although much of the misconduct described herein occurred through the social media platform X (formerly Twitter), this case does not concern any bona fide matter of public concern, public participation, news reporting, consumer warning, or civic discourse.
3. Rather, this case arises from a deteriorating personal relationship and a purely private vendetta. Defendant Robert Lefkowitz used social media, anonymous accounts, threats, doxxing, impersonation, and employer-directed accusations as tools of retaliation against Plaintiff after Plaintiff attempted to distance himself from Defendant and no longer engage with Defendant on Defendant’s terms.

4. Defendants' own communications with the Plaintiff show that their objective was not to engage in protected public discourse, but to manufacture virality, manipulate anonymous online personas, gain followers, and then later retaliate against Plaintiff by inflicting personal and professional harm upon him.
5. The statements at issue did not contribute to any public debate, did not address a legitimate issue of public concern, and were not directed toward any broader community purpose. They were false, personal, and weaponized against a private individual.
6. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff suffered severe reputational damage, humiliation, emotional distress, fear for his safety, and the loss of his employment and future professional opportunities.

PARTIES

7. Plaintiff Eric Spector ("Plaintiff") is, and at all relevant times was, an individual residing in the County of New York, State of New York.
8. Upon information and belief, Defendant Robert Lefkowitz ("Lefkowitz" or "Defendant") is, and at all relevant times was, an individual residing in the County of New York, State of New York.
9. Defendants sued herein as JOHN DOE and JANE DOE (collectively, the "Doe Defendants") are one or more persons and/or entities whose true names and identities are presently unknown to Plaintiff and who operated, controlled, participated in, published through, and/or amplified anonymous or pseudonymous X accounts and related communications referenced herein, including but not limited to accounts commonly referred to as "Max," "Chucky/Knuckles," and the "Jewish" account.
10. Plaintiff will amend this pleading to substitute the true names and capacities of the Doe

Defendants when ascertained.

Plaintiff's Relationship with Lefkowitz and the Social Media Context

11. Beginning in or about late 2024, and continuing through at least September 2025, Plaintiff and Lefkowitz communicated frequently and extensively about social media, posting, engagement, virality, and account growth.
12. In or about early 2025, Plaintiff became acquainted with Lefkowitz through X and thereafter developed both an online and in-person friendship with him.
13. During this time period, Lefkowitz cultivated a personal friendship with Plaintiff and encouraged Plaintiff to post inflammatory and offensive content designed to generate outrage and go viral, including so that Lefkowitz could test such content through Plaintiff, shield himself from direct exposure, and obtain leverage over Plaintiff.
14. At all relevant times, Plaintiff understood that Lefkowitz was associated with, and upon information and belief was at least one administrator, contributor, ghostwriter, and/or controlling participant in, the X account known as "Murray Hill Guy."
15. As more fully set forth in Exhibit A, Lefkowitz's own communications with Plaintiff reflect an obsession with "going viral," growing accounts, manipulating online personas, and generating attention through provocation and trolling. See Ex. A, generally.
16. In multiple communications during the spring and summer of 2025, including by at least April 2025, Lefkowitz repeatedly discussed "going viral," gaining followers, provoking backlash, and creating content so inflammatory that it would be screenshotted, widely circulated, and debated online. See Ex. A, generally.
17. In one such communication made in or about April 2025, Lefkowitz discussed "Murray Hill Guy's Twitter Goals," including, among other things, "going viral," gaining followers, provoking backlash, and creating content so inflammatory that it would be widely circulated and screenshotted. See Ex. A at p. 4.

18. Upon information and belief, a principal objective of Lefkowitz’s virality strategy was to generate attention and engagement through derogatory, misogynistic commentary directed at women in New York City.
19. In additional communications, Lefkowitz coached Plaintiff on tweets, engagement strategies, follower growth, account changes, anonymity, avoiding doxxing<sup>1</sup>, and how to cultivate virality. See Ex. A at pp. 1, 17–18.
20. Upon information and belief, Lefkowitz’s strategy also depended in substantial part on “ragebaiting<sup>2</sup>,” i.e., the deliberate use of inflammatory or offensive content intended to provoke outrage, backlash, and engagement for the purpose of increasing attention, virality, and follower growth.
21. The communications between Plaintiff and Lefkowitz make clear that the relevant activity was not undertaken to inform the public or address any recognized issue of public concern, but rather to build personas, generate attention, and weaponize online influence.
22. Upon information and belief, one such pseudonymous account was the X account commonly referred to as “GilGil.”
23. Beginning in early 2025, Lefkowitz repeatedly represented to Plaintiff that he was “GilGil,”

<sup>1</sup> “Doxxing” refers to the act of publicly revealing, publishing, or disseminating a person’s private or identifying information online—such as their full name, address, employer, contact information, or photographs—typically without consent and often for purposes of harassment, intimidation, or retaliation.

that he was working with or through “GilGil,” and/or that “GilGil” would act in furtherance of his disputes with Plaintiff and others, including statements to the effect of “time for GilGil’s revenge.”

24. Such statements support the inference that Lefkowitz identified with, controlled, used, or coordinated with the “GilGil” account in connection with the conduct alleged herein.

Deterioration of the Friendship and Threats

25. In or about the summer of 2025, Plaintiff and Lefkowitz’s friendship began to deteriorate.

26. As Plaintiff’s professional and personal life increasingly occupied his time, Plaintiff communicated less frequently with Lefkowitz and began distancing himself from Defendant’s erratic, controlling, immature, and attention-seeking behavior.

27. Lefkowitz became resentful, jealous, and hostile toward Plaintiff.

28. Lefkowitz repeatedly expressed that he felt ignored, disrespected, or abandoned by Plaintiff and treated Plaintiff’s reduced availability as a personal betrayal.

29. In communications with Plaintiff, Lefkowitz increasingly framed Plaintiff as an “enemy,” accused him of disloyalty, and threatened consequences if Plaintiff did not continue to engage with him on Defendant’s terms.

30. In one such communication made on or about May 17, 2025, Lefkowitz texted Plaintiff: “I’ll tell JE to doxx you.” See Ex. A at p. 128.

31. In another communication made on or about September 9, 2025, Lefkowitz texted Plaintiff, “you ignore your friends,” “you aren’t safe!,” and “it’s about to get worse pal.” See Ex. A at p. 110.

32. In another communication made on or about September 12, 2025, Lefkowitz told Plaintiff, “you are also an enemy and will face a dox going forward I will take you down and everything you stand for!! No one does me wrong. No one.” See Ex. A at p. 125.

33. Lefkowitz also threatened to post Plaintiff, send Plaintiff’s picture to others, and reveal Plaintiff’s identity if Plaintiff did not respond to him or engage with him. See Ex. A at pp. 122, 136.
34. These threats were not public discourse. They were targeted acts of personal retaliation arising out of a deteriorating friendship.

False Identification of Plaintiff as “Murray Hill Guy”

35. Beginning in or about May or June 2025, Lefkowitz began asserting that Plaintiff was the person behind “Murray Hill Guy.”
36. Those assertions were false.
37. Plaintiff did not operate the “Murray Hill Guy” account in the manner Lefkowitz publicly claimed, nor was Plaintiff responsible for the statements and misconduct that Lefkowitz and others began attributing to him through that false identification.
38. Upon information and belief, Lefkowitz either directly made, materially contributed to, furnished content for, encouraged, or knowingly ratified false statements identifying Plaintiff as “Murray Hill Guy.”
39. Upon information and belief, Lefkowitz also impersonated Plaintiff and/or manipulated how Plaintiff’s identity was presented in direct messages and other communications in order to bolster the false narrative that Plaintiff was behind “Murray Hill Guy.”
40. In one such communication made in or about June 2025, Lefkowitz acknowledged that Plaintiff was being identified to others in connection with the “Murray Hill Guy” account and attempted to direct or manage how Plaintiff should respond to that accusation. See Ex. A at p. 14.

41. Lefkowitz's own communications further reflect insider knowledge of and participation in the "Murray Hill Guy" ecosystem, including communications referencing "Murray Hill Guy's Twitter Goals," content strategy, ghostwriting, and a group identified as "MHG ghost writers," in which messages stated, inter alia, "His name is Eric," "He's private messaging me," and "It's extremely disrespectful by @goonboss_ to emphasize all my messages and not say a word." See Ex. A at pp. 4, 115.
42. At the same time, Lefkowitz's communications demonstrate that he understood Plaintiff to maintain and develop a separate online persona apart from "Murray Hill Guy," including communications referencing "Marvin" / "@goonboss_," whether Plaintiff should "make a Marvin," restart or remake accounts, obtain a blue check, and "go viral under [his] real name." See Ex. A at pp. 9, 11.
43. In light of Lefkowitz's insider role with respect to "Murray Hill Guy," together with his contemporaneous knowledge of Plaintiff's separate online identity and account strategy, Lefkowitz either knew, or at minimum recklessly disregarded, the falsity of statements publicly identifying Plaintiff as the person behind "Murray Hill Guy."
44. Upon information and belief, Lefkowitz acted with actual malice in that he knew Plaintiff was not the person publicly portrayed by Defendants, knew or recklessly disregarded the falsity of statements identifying Plaintiff as "Murray Hill Guy" and as a rapist, sex offender, creep, and predator, and nevertheless encouraged, ratified, amplified, and participated in the dissemination of such accusations in order to harm Plaintiff personally and professionally.

Employer-Directed Defamatory Posts

45. On or about May 1, 2025, the X account @auquan published a public hiring announcement welcoming Plaintiff, Eric Spector, to Auquan AI. See Ex. A at pp. 145–146.

46. Thereafter, X account “rory g” / @gilgilmarcs, believed to be operated by Lefkowitz, posted in reply, “Eric Spector: confirmed sex offender.” See Ex. A at p. 145.
47. Thereafter, X account “Chucky” / @Chucky365787, believed to be operated by Lefkowitz, replied directly beneath Auquan AI’s hiring announcement, writing “RaPist.” See Ex. A at p. 146.
48. X account @Chucky365787 also posted: “Eric Spector runs the Murray Hill Guy account. He’s a confirmed creep and has r— charges on him by several females,” and tagged @auquan, @pigshitsonballs, @MurrayHillGuy1, and @BuffChickenSub. See Ex. A at p. 144.
49. These statements were false.
50. These statements did not constitute opinion, rhetorical flourish, or protected public commentary. They were presented as factual accusations concerning Plaintiff’s identity and alleged criminal or sexual misconduct.
51. The false identification of Plaintiff as “Murray Hill Guy” was defamatory because Defendants used that false identification to attribute to Plaintiff alleged harassment, predatory conduct, and sexual wrongdoing, and then directed those accusations to Plaintiff’s employer and the public.

Doxxing and Escalation

52. In one communication made on or about August 27, 2025, Lefkowitz admitted, “I sent your name.” See Ex. A at p. 120.
53. In another communication on August 27, 2025, Lefkowitz texted Plaintiff, “kicking you and doxxing you in that chat.” See Ex. A at p. 121.
54. In another communication on August 27, 2025, Lefkowitz texted Plaintiff, “Sending a picture of you in like an hour when I'm home from park." See Ex. A at p. 122.

55. On or about September 12, 2025, a screenshot reflected a demand to "Bro dox him" and a threat to call Plaintiff's job if Plaintiff did not respond. Upon information and belief, Lefkowitz either participated in, encouraged, or materially contributed to that doxxing effort. See Ex. A at p. 129.
56. On or about September 13, 2025, after having called Plaintiff an "enemy" the day before and after Plaintiff ignored his messages, Lefkowitz sent Plaintiff or caused Plaintiff to receive a screenshot of a post falsely stating that "Eric Spector runs the Murray Hill Guy account," that he was a "confirmed creep," and that he had "charges" from several females, followed by the message: "Good luck. I'm not helping." See Ex. A at p. 130.
57. On or about September 22, 2025, Lefkowitz texted Plaintiff, "Should I post you? Is that the only way you answer me?" thereby threatening to send Plaintiff's picture and/or publicly post Plaintiff if Plaintiff did not respond. See Ex. A at p. 136.
58. Upon information and belief, the anonymous accounts and third parties who published defamatory statements about Plaintiff acted based on information, encouragement, access, material, prompts, or ratification provided by Lefkowitz and/or one or more Doe Defendants.
59. The timing and content of Lefkowitz's threats, admissions, and follow-up communications support that inference.
60. After Plaintiff was doxxed and targeted, Lefkowitz did not act as an innocent bystander. Instead, he mocked Plaintiff, taunted him, and demonstrated awareness and control inconsistent with mere passive observation.
61. At all relevant times, the conduct at issue arose out of a private interpersonal conflict between Plaintiff and Lefkowitz and related participants.

62. Defendants' communications reveal a fixation on going viral, follower growth, account manipulation, trolling, anonymity, doxxing, and personal retaliation.
63. The defamatory statements at issue were not made to report news, warn the public, comment on a political or social controversy, or advance any legitimate matter of community concern.
64. Instead, Lefkowitz used a public-facing platform as a tool to prosecute a private vendetta against Plaintiff.
65. The fact that Lefkowitz used X, a public-facing platform, does not convert this private retaliatory campaign into speech "in connection with an issue of public interest."
66. Defendants' conduct was directed at a private individual, arose from a collapsing personal relationship, and sought to inflict personal, professional, and reputational harm on Plaintiff.

The Aftermath

67. At the time of the defamatory campaign, Plaintiff was employed by Auquan AI.
68. Defendants' defamatory statements and doxxing were directed to, tagged to, or otherwise designed to reach Plaintiff's employer.
69. Following the employer-directed accusations, Plaintiff was contacted by HR and/or required to attend an employment-related meeting.
70. In one communication made on or about September 19, 2025, Plaintiff advised Lefkowitz that "HR had me go in," and Lefkowitz responded by asking whether they had "act all weird," thereby evidencing contemporaneous awareness that Plaintiff's employer had begun reacting to the online accusations. See Ex. A at p. 119.
71. On or about September 23, 2025, Plaintiff was terminated from his employment, purportedly "due to recent events," despite having been in good standing and despite never having received a negative formal performance review.

72. On or about September 25, 2025, after Plaintiff attempted to cut off contact with Lefkowitz, Lefkowitz responded by text stating, “Hey pal, I got Knuckles. I have all the proof I need. Let me know when your investigation is done and want to be my friend again. He’s done though. He will never bother us again.” See Ex. A at p. 114.
73. That communication evidences, at a minimum, personal knowledge of, and/or participation in, the campaign against Plaintiff and supports the inference that Lefkowitz exercised influence over at least one of the anonymous accounts involved.
74. After the false accusations and employer-directed attacks intensified, Plaintiff’s photograph was posted from the “Murray Hill Guy” account with the sexually suggestive caption, “Bitches can’t resist an alpha male. Murray Hill Fitness coming soon.” See Ex. A at p. 131.
75. That post falsely reinforced the narrative that Plaintiff was the operator of the account and, in context, further associated Plaintiff with the surrounding accusations of sexual misconduct and predatory behavior.
76. The accusations that Plaintiff was a rapist, sex offender, creep, predator, and the operator of “Murray Hill Guy” were false and directly contributed to the investigation, scrutiny, and loss of Plaintiff’s employment.
77. But for Defendants’ conduct, the attacks on Plaintiff’s reputation, the investigation into Plaintiff, and the loss of his employment would not have occurred.
78. As a result of Defendants’ conduct, Plaintiff also suffered humiliation, fear, loss of personal security, damage to personal and professional relationships, emotional distress, and other general and special damages.

AS TO THE FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
DEFAMATION AS TO ROBERT LEFKOWTIZ

79. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 78 as though fully set forth herein.

80. Lefkowitz made, published, republished, caused to be published, and/or materially contributed to false statements of fact concerning Plaintiff, including but not limited to statements and implications that Plaintiff:
- a. operated and controlled the “Murray Hill Guy” account;
  - b. was responsible for alleged harassment and misconduct associated with that account;
  - c. was a “creep,” “rapist,” “confirmed sex offender,” sexual predator, or other equivalent formulation; and/or
  - d. had engaged in wrongful sexual or predatory conduct.
81. The statements described above were false.
82. Lefkowitz knew those statements were false, acted in reckless disregard of their falsity, or deliberately fostered and amplified those statements despite serious reason to know they were false.
83. Lefkowitz published such statements directly and indirectly, including through threats, impersonation, doxxing, forwarding or causing the dissemination of posts, and communications to or designed to reach third parties and Plaintiff’s employer.
84. The statements were reasonably understood as factual assertions about Plaintiff and were not protected opinion.
85. As a direct and proximate result of Lefkowitz’s defamation, Plaintiff suffered reputational injury, humiliation, emotional distress, loss of employment, loss of future professional opportunities, and other damages.

AS TO THE SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
DEFAMATION PER SE AS TO ROBERT LEFKOWITZ

76. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 78 as though fully set forth herein.
77. The statements published, caused to be published, encouraged, ratified, or amplified by Lefkowitz falsely accused Plaintiff of serious criminal and sexual misconduct, including but not limited to rape, sexual predation, and sex offenses.

78. Such statements constitute defamation per se because they falsely impute serious crimes and sexual misconduct to Plaintiff and tend to injure Plaintiff in his trade, business, and profession.

79. The statements were made with actual malice, that is, with knowledge of falsity or reckless disregard of whether they were false.

80. As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff suffered presumed damages and actual damages, including but not limited to job loss, reputational injury, humiliation, emotional distress, and other special and consequential damages.

81. Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory, special, consequential, and punitive damages.

AS TO THE THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
DEFAMATION AS TO THE DOE DEFENDANTS

76. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 78 as though fully set forth herein.

77. The Doe Defendants published and/or republished false statements of fact concerning Plaintiff, including that Plaintiff operated “Murray Hill Guy,” had committed harassment or misconduct associated with that account, and had engaged in serious sexual or criminal wrongdoing.

78. The Doe Defendants published such statements to third parties and broad online audiences, including by tagging or replying to Plaintiff’s employer and using Plaintiff’s name and photograph.

79. The Doe Defendants had no factual basis for such accusations and acted maliciously, recklessly, or with actual malice.

80. As a direct and proximate result of the Doe Defendants’ conduct, Plaintiff suffered reputational damage, humiliation, emotional distress, loss of employment, and other damages.

81. Plaintiff will amend this pleading to substitute the true names of the Doe Defendants when identified.

AS TO THE FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
DEFAMATION PER SE AS TO THE DOE DEFENDANTS

75. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 78 as though fully set forth herein.

76. The Doe Defendants falsely accused Plaintiff of rape, sex offenses, sexual predation, and comparable forms of serious criminal and sexual misconduct.

77. Those statements constitute defamation per se.

78. The Doe Defendants published the accusations maliciously and with actual malice, including by directing them to Plaintiff's employer and by using Plaintiff's name and likeness.

79. As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff suffered presumed and actual damages, including but not limited to the loss of employment, reputational harm, humiliation, and emotional distress.

AS TO THE FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AS TO ROBERT
LEFKOWTIZ

75. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 78 as though fully set forth herein.

76. Lefkowitz engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct toward Plaintiff, including but not limited to:

- a. threatening Plaintiff with doxxing and destruction;
- b. falsely identifying Plaintiff as "Murray Hill Guy";
- c. impersonating Plaintiff and/or causing Plaintiff to be impersonated;
- d. disclosing or causing the disclosure of Plaintiff's name, image, and identifying information;

- e. directing, encouraging, or materially contributing to false accusations that Plaintiff was a rapist, sex offender, creep, or predator;
- f. targeting Plaintiff’s employer and livelihood;
- g. sending Plaintiff the defamatory material and taunting him with “Good luck” and similar messages; and
- h. continuing such conduct even after Plaintiff sought to cut off contact and reported the matter.

77. Lefkowitz undertook such conduct intentionally, maliciously, and/or with reckless disregard of the substantial probability of causing Plaintiff severe emotional distress.

78. Lefkowitz’s conduct exceeded all bounds of decency tolerated in a civilized society.

79. As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff suffered severe emotional distress, fear, humiliation, anxiety, and related psychological harm.

80. Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory and punitive damages.

AS TO THE SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AS TO THE DOE
DEFENDANTS

75. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 78 as though fully set forth herein.

76. The Doe Defendants engaged in a sustained, coordinated, and outrageous campaign against Plaintiff, including doxxing, employer-directed accusations, false allegations of rape and sex offenses, and repeated acts designed to expose Plaintiff to public hatred, ridicule, contempt, and professional ruin.

77. The Doe Defendants acted intentionally, maliciously, and/or with reckless disregard of the near certainty that their conduct would cause Plaintiff severe emotional distress.

78. As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff suffered severe emotional distress and related damages.

79. Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory and punitive damages.

AS TO THE SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENCE AS TO ROBERT LEFKOWITZ

76. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 78 as though fully set forth herein.

77. At all relevant times, Defendant Robert Lefkowitz owed Plaintiff a duty to exercise reasonable care in his words, conduct, online activity, and communications concerning Plaintiff.

78. Said duty included, inter alia, a duty not to carelessly misidentify Plaintiff as the operator of the “Murray Hill Guy” account; not to carelessly publish, furnish, or encourage false information concerning Plaintiff; not to carelessly disclose Plaintiff’s name, image, and identifying information to hostile third parties; and not to carelessly expose Plaintiff to foreseeable reputational, professional, and emotional harm.

79. It was reasonably foreseeable that falsely identifying Plaintiff as the person behind “Murray Hill Guy,” linking Plaintiff to accusations of harassment and sexual misconduct, disclosing or causing the disclosure of Plaintiff’s identifying information, and directing such accusations to Plaintiff’s employer and others would place Plaintiff’s employment, safety, reputation, and emotional well-being at serious risk.

80. Defendant Lefkowitz breached the foregoing duty of reasonable care by, among other things:

- a. carelessly identifying or implying to others that Plaintiff operated or controlled the “Murray Hill Guy” account;
- b. carelessly furnishing, encouraging, contributing to, or ratifying false statements concerning Plaintiff’s identity and alleged misconduct;

- c. carelessly disclosing or causing the disclosure of Plaintiff's name, image, and/or identifying information to others;
  - d. carelessly communicating, forwarding, or amplifying false accusations that Plaintiff was a rapist, sex offender, creep, predator, or otherwise engaged in sexual or criminal misconduct;
  - e. carelessly directing, or allowing to be directed, such accusations to Plaintiff's employer and professional sphere; and
  - f. failing to take reasonable steps to correct false statements and false identifications after becoming aware of the substantial harm being caused to Plaintiff.
81. As a direct and proximate result of Defendant Lefkowitz's negligence, Plaintiff suffered damages, including but not limited to loss of employment, loss of earning capacity, reputational injury, humiliation, emotional distress, and other economic and non-economic harm.
82. Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

AS TO THE EIGHTH CAUSE ACTION
NEGLIGENCE AS TO THE DOE DEFENDANTS

76. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 78 as though fully set forth herein.
77. At all relevant times, the Doe Defendants owed Plaintiff a duty to exercise reasonable care before publishing, republishing, transmitting, or amplifying statements accusing Plaintiff of serious misconduct, including sexual or criminal misconduct.
78. Said duty included a duty to exercise reasonable care before identifying Plaintiff by name, image, or employment in connection with accusations that he operated "Murray Hill Guy," engaged in harassment, or committed rape, sex offenses, or predatory conduct.
79. It was reasonably foreseeable that publishing such accusations about Plaintiff, particularly while using Plaintiff's name, image, and employer-facing posts, would cause serious injury to Plaintiff's reputation, employment, and emotional well-being.

80. The Doe Defendants breached that duty by, among other things:

- a. carelessly publishing and republishing false statements identifying Plaintiff as "Murray Hill Guy";
- b. carelessly accusing Plaintiff of being a rapist, confirmed sex offender, creep, predator, or similar;
- c. carelessly directing such accusations to Plaintiff's employer and/or broad public audiences;
- d. carelessly relying on rumor, hostility, and unverified assertions about Plaintiff's identity and alleged conduct; and
- e. failing to retract, remove, or correct such statements after the harm to Plaintiff became apparent.

81. As a direct and proximate result of the Doe Defendants' negligence, Plaintiff suffered loss of employment, reputational injury, emotional distress, humiliation, and other damages.

82. Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

AS TO THE NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AS TO ROBERT
LEFKOWTIZ

75. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 78 as though fully set forth herein.

76. At all relevant times, Defendant Robert Lefkowitz owed Plaintiff a duty to exercise reasonable care so as not to engage in conduct that unreasonably endangered Plaintiff's emotional well-being or created an unreasonable risk of causing Plaintiff severe emotional distress.

77. It was reasonably foreseeable that falsely identifying Plaintiff as “Murray Hill Guy,” disclosing or causing disclosure of Plaintiff’s identity, associating Plaintiff with accusations of rape, sexual predation, harassment, and sex offenses, and directing or permitting such accusations to be directed to Plaintiff’s employer and others would create an unreasonable risk of severe emotional distress to Plaintiff.
78. Defendant Lefkowitz breached that duty by carelessly engaging in the conduct described herein, including by carelessly misidentifying Plaintiff, carelessly participating in or facilitating disclosure of Plaintiff’s identity, carelessly fostering false accusations of sexual and criminal misconduct, and carelessly allowing such accusations to jeopardize Plaintiff’s employment, safety, and reputation.
79. Defendant Lefkowitz’s negligent conduct unreasonably endangered Plaintiff’s emotional well-being and created an unreasonable risk of causing severe emotional distress.
80. As a direct and proximate result of such negligent conduct, Plaintiff suffered severe emotional distress, including anxiety, humiliation, fear, mental anguish, stress, and related emotional and psychological injuries.
81. Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

AS TO THE TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS AS TO THE DOE
DEFENDANTS

75. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 78 as though fully set forth herein.
76. At all relevant times, the Doe Defendants owed Plaintiff a duty to exercise reasonable care so as not to engage in conduct creating an unreasonable risk of severe emotional distress to Plaintiff.
77. It was reasonably foreseeable that falsely accusing Plaintiff by name and image of being a rapist, sex offender, creep, predator, and the operator of “Murray Hill Guy,” particularly in communications visible to Plaintiff’s employer and others, would place Plaintiff in fear, expose him to humiliation and public contempt, and cause severe emotional distress.

78. The Doe Defendants breached that duty by carelessly publishing, republishing, and amplifying such accusations without reasonable verification, by carelessly disclosing or exploiting Plaintiff’s identity in connection with those accusations, and by carelessly directing such accusations toward Plaintiff’s employment and public reputation.

79. The foregoing conduct created an unreasonable risk of severe emotional distress to Plaintiff.

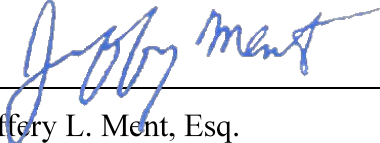

80. As a direct and proximate result of such conduct, Plaintiff suffered severe emotional distress, including anxiety, humiliation, mental anguish, fear for his personal and professional future, and related emotional injuries.

81. Plaintiff has been damaged in an amount to be determined at trial.

WHEREFORE, the Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants on the First, Second, Third, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Seventh, Eighth, Ninth, and Tenth Causes of Action in amounts which exceed the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction, together with interest, costs and disbursements.

Hahahah

Keep it

Tweet idea for you

"I like every one of my tweets, if you don't like yourself neither will your hinge date"

Girls who take the bus are way hotter than girls who take the subway

(My girl takes the subway)

Lily Philips and that other whore ruined the British accent

If a girl is shaving her legs daily and doesn't have a boyfriend, she's a whore

If a girl doesn't shave her legs daily while she has a boyfriend, she is the alpha in the relationship

But also disgusting ^

If you help me with my next viral tweet

Murray Hill Guy's Twitter Goals:

- Go viral for a tweet so dumb people think it's satire, but you meant every word ✓
- Gain 15K followers without tweeting a single sincere sentence ✓
- Get ratio-ed by a 23-year-old with 200 followers who calls you "racial slur" ✓
- Make someone end a relationship because your tweet hit too close to home ✓ bonus, hook up with them after ✓
- Get blocked by at least three accounts with >100K following ✓
- Have a tweet printed out and mailed to you by a crazy ex ✓
- Post a tweet so deranged it gets screenshotted and put in a

Bro we already did

It's risky

Try and see

I hate deleting my good tweets

Alright fine

But we get caught

I do t get why they do t take off

You're my ALT

Ok

Reword

My Friend's mom started taking ozempic and looks really good now. She's been low key getting flirtier anytime I see her. Should I go for it? Not like he's my best friend or anything account full anon?

You can do that now if you want

Just meant if you wanted goon

May be fun to start fresh tho

What's better?

Is Marvin cooked bc of suspension + deactivation?

It would take a few weeks to gain your algo

Honestly would just start fresh. But make sure you have the blue check

Why check

It's auto engagement

Which one

Cheap?

Yeah the cheapest

I think you should make yourself a chick

< 106

Rob

Nah I've had that

We could do that in a week

Bounce back

This account is run by a 22 year old virgin btw

Men, before you get into a relationship, you need to make sure you can carry her.

If you can't, you need to get her on a strict regimen to lose weight until you can.

She'll respect you way more if she knows you can pick her up and put her on your shoulders.

Wait I wanna post that one ^

Don't post

Let me tweak that

Ok

< 106

What?

Moving to Scottsdale

Would u be my roommate

If I ever theoretically go then sure

Fuk you job in nyc

We move here and craft bangers all day and get brand deals

Post your face more and launch your business

If you find a way for me to make money and not need my job, then sure

I need you all in

I'll tell JE to doxx you again was in touch earlier this yr about a possible profile. He's doing another story right now, so I'm picking up the slack-- and wondering if you'd be game. I've been following you for a little while and getting a kick out of your dating/politics tweets. I think that now would be the perfect time to "unmask," and come out on top after that weird guy doxxed you this week. My thinking: your name is out there now, and the world wants to meet the real MHG/Robby. What do you think?

Re: Spector v. Lefkowitz | Index No. 150234/2026

Dear Attorneys Ment and Picone:

As you are aware, we represent Robert Lefkowitz in the above-referenced matter. We are in receipt of your Amended Complaint (NYSCEF Doc. No. 39). We are at a bit of a loss as to why you chose to do that. While, of course, we see the lengthy Exhibit A and your conclusory assertion that this was on a matter of purely private concern, it has not substantively altered the existing causes of action. See Simkin v. Blank, 19 N.Y.3d 46, 52, 945 N.Y.S.2d 222, 225 (2013) (“bare legal conclusions” in a complaint are not entitled to a liberal construction or favorable inference).

Because it does not substantively alter the existing causes of action, our motion to dismiss (Mot. Seq. No. 2) remains open to dismiss the entire action, even though the amended complaint is now the operative complaint. See Aetna Life Ins. Co. v. Appalachian Asset Mgmt. Corp., 110 A.D.3d 32, 39, 970 N.Y.S.2d 750, 755 (1st Dept. 2013). Specifically, this application of the prior-filed motion includes anti-SLAPP motions. See Zaiger LLC v. Bucher Law PLLC, 238 A.D.3d 687, 687-88, 236 N.Y.S.3d 141, 143 (1st Dept. 2025).

Given that this might be a procedural quirk that you were not aware of, we pondered letting the 29th come and go, whereupon we would then file a notice of non-opposition. However, we did not wish to be unsporting, nor did we wish to allow you to walk into a malpractice trap.

The existing briefing schedule as to Motion Sequence No. 2 remains operative. If Mr. Spector’s goal was to attempt to render that motion moot, that would be error. Aetna, supra. If Mr. Spector does not oppose the existing motion by April 29, we will deem it unopposed and file a notice of non-opposition. However, as noted above, if you unknowingly failed to oppose, it would be malpractice, and despite being opponents, we do not wish to allow that to happen to you.

Separately, it seems that the gambit here was to file an unnecessary amended complaint, as devised merely to increase the costs to Mr. Lefkowitz (for which Mr. Spector will be responsible if and when we prevail). Unfortunately, that is the hallmark of a SLAPP suit—to increase costs for the sake of increasing costs.

Randazza Legal Group

RANDAZZA
LEGAL GROUP

You may recall that when you sought an extension, we of course gave it without question. We did so as a matter of courtesy and professionalism. We, unfortunately, need to now re-evaluate how we will perceive every request. Where we initially came into this presuming good faith in all your actions, this has tainted that presumption. It isn't that we are concerned about the amended complaint. It changes really nothing, except packing the record with more of the relationship between these two guys. But if that is all you wanted to do, the exhibits could have been attached to your anti-SLAPP response.

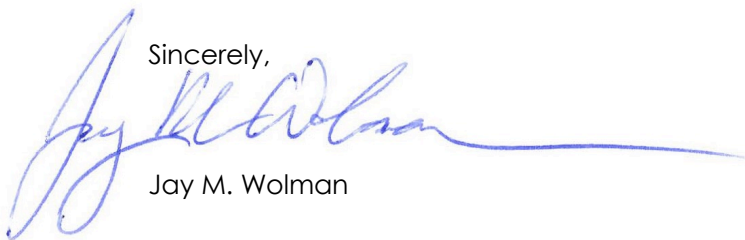

So now we have to presume that this is not just a client-driven SLAPP suit and that it will be litigated in a way that is calculated to be wasteful, it may prove more difficult to extract courtesies from us. It is possible that we are wrong. And that is why I am purposely using equivocal language. If you admit that this was your intention, but you regret it, then we are prepared to forget all about it. We are not laying a trap for you; we would see such candor as "manning up" and specifically waive any right to seek sanctions over it. Everyone makes mistakes. You made one here. Admitting it would reset our expectations of you.

Alternatively, if you can convince us that this was not merely a maneuver to try and run up the bill, we are open minded to your explanation.

You may want to get started on the anti-SLAPP response. If you wasted the time you needed to work on it with this genius maneuver, we are prepared to offer you another extension so that your client does not suffer prejudice from your unfamiliarity with Aetna and Zaiger.

Let us know if you need additional time. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Jay M. Wolman
