Keiichi's hilariously quirky magic left Dec and Ant (formerly known as Ant and Dec) totally in awe of his powers!

And, btw, how on EARTH did he do that with the ring? That trick alone was definitely worth a Golden Buzzer!

When he said he wants to row his boat at Atlantic ocean, I think he's not even kidding, dude came with his bicycle on stage, he clearly loves travelling. I wonder his happiness when he's finally rowing his boat, gotta love this guy. He is not asking for more, just a simple rowing days after a long long journey on land.

I met Keiichi Iwasaki a few years ago, before the pandemic. He is a fantastic and humble person at the same time. He was in my city, LECCE Italy, and he performed his spectacular tricks on the street every summer. And I was waiting for the arrival of summer with the hope of seeing him again among the villages of the historic center. I have always loved his way of being ironic, self-deprecating and at the same time amazing in his performances. I always thought from the first moment that I saw him that he deserved a lot more and first-rate stages. BRAVO Keiichi, ...

I've seen so many acts were the main reason for their golden buzzer is because of their sad story, but this was without a doubt a man well worth of a golden buzzer! Because of his hilarious and positive attitude along with his amazing magic tricks. Definitely want to see more of this man.

For those who don't know his story,he's actually been travelling by bike all over the world for more than 10 years ; he's making this possible by performing magic,making a living,while seeing the world. He's been to a similar tv show in Romania. Look it up on youtube "Keiichi Iwasaki, din Japonia, număr de magie ieșit din comun!". If you loved this,you'll love that as well (different magic tricks as well) 🍀

There's other youtube videos out there of him doing almost the same tricks but in different countries. This amazing man has traveled through 43 countries (on his bicycle), and sometimes does magic on the street for tips which he uses for food and lodging. Also, he's climbed Mt. Everest. What can this man not do.. he was born to be an entertainer.
